

DATES ARE NAMED FOR REGISTERING

Prince George Voters Will Get Two Opportunities.

Upper Marlboro, Sept. 23.—An important step in the political campaign about to be begun in Prince George County was taken yesterday, when the board of election supervisors for the county, S. Marvin Peach, George W. Hardy, and William D. Pyles, appointed the registration officers for the several election districts, and also designated the places where the officers were to sit.

The registration officers will sit October 3 and 10 in the respective districts for the purpose of registering all persons entitled to have their names placed on the books, and on October 17 will sit for revision only. No new names will be placed on the books on this day. Voters who are already enrolled and have not changed their residence since the last election are not required to register.

If six months prior to election day, November 7, a voter has moved from one district to another, he is required to transfer from his old voting place to that of his new residence. If he has moved from one district to another, and has not lived in his new home for six months prior to election day, a transfer is not necessary, as he is allowed to vote at his old voting place.

NEWSBOY PROVES AN ALIBI.

Shows Grocer Was Mistaken in Thief's Identity.

Gus de Thiers, who sells papers at Seventh and G streets northwest, gained his freedom yesterday in the Jayville Court when he was arraigned on a charge of stealing a $5 bill from the grocery store of Thomas Wood, 626 Massachusetts avenue northwest, by proving an alibi.

Wood said he was sitting in his store about 3 o'clock one day last week when he heard a noise, and arising saw a boy, whom he alleged was little Gus, beat a hasty retreat from behind the counter and out of the store. Wood went to the cash drawer and found a $5 bill missing.

Gus told Judge De Lacy that he had been at Seventh and G streets, to get his papers at 3 o'clock, and that the groceryman, therefore, was mistaken in the identity of the young thief.

Condition of the Water.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Harpers Ferry, W. Va., Sept. 23.—Potomac and Shenandoah rivers both very dry.

According to an eminent doctor, the excessive use of salt tends to paralyze the sense of taste.

ADJUSTING MOROCCAN DISPUTE.

On the right is M. Jules Cambon, the French ambassador to Berlin, and on the left is Herr von Kiderlen-Warchter, Germany's minister of foreign affairs. These two men are engaged in adjusting the Moroccan dispute that threatens the peace of Germany, France, and England.

PROGRESSIVES TO MEET IN CHICAGO

Will Discuss Means of Side-tracking Taft.

A conference will be held in Chicago on October 14 next for the purpose of discussing ways and means of defeating the renomination of President Taft as the candidate of the Republican party in the next Presidential election, according to an announcement made yesterday at the progressive headquarters in this city. It is expected that about 50 delegates from all parts of the country, who are interested in the progressive movement, will attend. It is said that the conference is also for the purpose of determining the strength of the progressive movement in different parts of the country and to devise plans for furthering the campaign.

MAY GO TO CREAM CITY.

Health Department Likely to Enter Pure Milk Competition.

Health Officer Woodward is considering a District exhibit in the competitive milk exhibition at the International Dairy Show, at Milwaukee, October 13 to 15. It is planned to have the health department of various cities submit five samples of milk from dealers who hold permits from the respective departments.

Ivan C. Weld, director of the milk stations operated by George M. Dwyer, Jr., who will be in charge of the milk and cream exhibit, believes that the Washington department would make a creditable showing.

Pauline, President Taft's cow, is expected to be one of the attractions at the show.

LEAVES WIFE AS SURETY.

Motorist, Arrested Near Zurich, Escapes Big Fine.

Special Cable to The Washington Herald.

Geneva, Sept. 23.—At Wallenstadt, near Zurich, where the speed limit for motorists is very low and the fines are very high, an Englishman was arrested and refused to pay, saying that he wanted to see the mayor of the village.

The mayor was at a neighboring town, and the Englishman, after a short conversation with his wife, offered her as hostage, while he went to fetch the mayor. The gendarme accepted the host, and as she did not know what to do with her, for the motorist did not appear again, and as she had not enough money to pay the fine he fortunately left her to go to the station after an hour's wait.

An automobile man has calculated that in New York City if motor vehicles alone were used there would be a saving of 20 miles of street space now occupied by the larger horse-drawn vehicles. This is about one-third of the total space.

Life holds no greater excitement than the remembrance of a world tour. How few of us have it but have at some time or other registered to take advantage of some shining opportunity, to later bewail our shortsightedness or negligence. It has been truly said:

Of all the joys of life, the greatest is to have seen the world.

You have stretched your shoulders at some chance which others more fortunate or apprehensive than yourself, have snatched up to have the opportunity later to bewail our shortsightedness or negligence. It has been truly said:

Of all the joys of life, the greatest is to have seen the world.

This great and wonderful world of ours?

There is nothing more fascinating than travel. In these days of comfort there are many hundreds who long for a chance to view new scenes and faces, but who are so situated that the rendering of the gratification of their desire is entirely out of the question. How different it is for those who are fortunate enough to live in any of the districts outlined by The Herald in its offer to send three people around the world and a party of seven on a European tour.

The thing to see the world, to know its history, its people, and the variety and beauty of its scenery, is within the reach of possibility for ten men and women of Washington, D. C., Maryland and Virginia.

The Herald makes you an offer by which you can do all this to broaden your view of life, and acquire a splendid education, for travel is the real source of all true wisdom.

Restless is Dangerous.

The fact that the date for the tour appears to be so far in the future may make some of the excitement, and as an advantage may not present themselves to you with much vivacity. But when The Herald tourists are leaving their homes early next year, waving adieu to their smiling friends and well-wishers, and the warning "All aboard, who are going," rings out and the train carrying the "Herald tourists" in their Pullman cars starts for the great adventure, then a full realization will come to you, and if you are not a member of the select party you will understand it and regret not having taken the opportunity.

But will you not take the opportunity? Remember The Herald will positively send you a person from every district, and give an extra trip for the grand leader. Why should not you be one of the party?
